

Insurance in Superannuation

Key fact sheet

This fact sheet relates to our automatic default insurance cover for VicSuper FutureSaver (EmployeeSaver) members.

Insurance can give you peace of mind, as it provides financial support to protect what's important to you if you die or are unable to work due to illness or injury.

Subject to eligibility* we provide you with default cover, and premiums are paid from your super so you don't have to remember to pay for it.

If you or your employer stop making contributions, your insurance premium will continue to be deducted from your super balance.

You can cancel or apply to change your automatic default insurance cover at any time.

What automatic default insurance cover is included?

	Terminal Illness Your death benefit may be paid in advance should you be diagnosed with a terminal illness. ¹	Death Provides your family or other dependents with a death benefit if you die.	Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) Pays a benefit if you're unlikely to ever work again due to illness or injury.	Income Protection Provides a replacement income if you're affected by an injury or illness that impacts your earnings.

*Eligibility requirements for default cover

- you elect to activate your default cover, or your account has ever reached $6,000 and you are at least 25 years old, and have received a contribution or rollover into your account within the previous 16 months,
- you have not previously elected to opt out of default cover, and
- you have met the other eligibility requirements outlined in the Insurance Policy.⁵

1. Your death benefit may be paid in advance if two medical practitioners, one of whom is a specialist in the field to which the condition relates, certify that you are suffering from an illness likely to result in death within 12 months of certification (excluding pre-existing conditions).
2. The cover is available to members aged 14-69. Members who join at age 65 or over will receive death only cover as default. The cover automatically starts when your account reaches $6,000 and you are at least 25 years old. Members who do not meet the automatic criteria for cover may be able to elect to activate their default cover.
3. If you are over age 65 and/or not a full-time employee, differing TPD definitions apply.
4. Pre-Existing Conditions restrictions may apply to your default cover and new member offer cover. Refer to the Insurance Handbook for details.
5. Refer to the Insurance Handbook available at vicsuper.com.au/insurancehandbook for details.
6. There are circumstances where 3 months waiting period may not apply. Refer to the Insurance Handbook for details.
7. Your default income protection cover has a 90-day waiting period and a two-year benefit period. You may be able to choose an alternate waiting period and benefit period. Refer to the Insurance Handbook.
