Information sheet – Proof of identity

Important information

Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act), you are required to provide proof of your identity when:

- you open a VicSuper Flexible Income account
- you make an application to withdraw part or all of your benefit
- you change your address to an overseas address
- you request a payment to an overseas bank account
- you change the bank account into which your regular income payments and/or withdrawal will be deposited
- you change your name or date of birth.
- other circumstances under which VicSuper requests you to confirm your identity

For a complete list of acceptable certifiers and documents please see form V223 Complete list of people who can certify your documents and acceptable proof of identity documents.

This form has been made available to you to enable you to return your proof of identity to complete one of the actions listed above.

Without your proof of identity, VicSuper may not accept contributions into your VicSuper account, and will not be able to pay your benefit to you, commence income payments or change your name or date of birth.

Please read the 'Proof of identity' section on this form carefully, to ensure you provide VicSuper with the correct documents which are certified by an eligible person.

If you are changing your name you must provide a certified copy of a linking document in addition to your proof of identity. See 'Have you changed your name or are you signing on behalf of another person?' on page 4.

Proof of identity

Under the AML/CTF Act super funds are required to collect proof of your identity and to verify identification from a reliable and independent source.

What information do you need to provide?

You are required to provide your full name, date of birth and residential address.

Your full name must be verified in all cases. In addition, either your date of birth or your residential address must also be verified. If you change your address to an overseas address, reside overseas or you direct VicSuper to make your payments to an overseas address or to a foreign bank account, you must provide verification of all three items.

Therefore, to confirm your identity you must provide:

- an original or certified copy of a primary photographic identification document or both

- an original or certified copy of a primary non-photographic identification document, and
- an original or certified copy of a secondary identification document.

Any documentation provided must not have expired, with the exception of a Commonwealth passport which has expired within the preceding two years.

What is a primary photographic identification document?

1. A licence or permit issued under a law of a State or Territory or equivalent authority of a foreign country for the purpose of driving a vehicle that contains a photograph of the person in whose name the document is issued.

2. A passport issued by the Commonwealth.
3. A passport or a similar document issued for the purpose of international travel, that:
 - a. contains a photograph and the signature of the person in whose name the document is issued
 - b. is issued by a foreign government, the United Nations or an agency of the United Nations, and
4. A card issued under a law of a State or Territory for the purpose of proving the person's age which contains a photograph of the person in whose name the document is issued.
5. A national identity card issued for the purpose of identification, that:
 - a. contains a photograph and the signature of the person in whose name the document is issued
 - b. is issued by a foreign government, the United Nations or an agency of the United Nations.

What is a primary non-photographic identification document?

1. A birth certificate or birth extract issued by a State or Territory.
2. A citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth.
3. A citizenship certificate issued by a foreign government.
4. A birth certificate issued by a foreign government, the United Nations or an agency of the United Nations.
5. A pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person in whose name the card is issued, to financial benefits.

Please note any passport, identity card, citizenship certificate or birth certificate that is written in a language other than English, must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.

What is a secondary identification document?

1. A notice that:
 - a. was issued to an individual by the Commonwealth, a State or Territory within the preceding 12 months
 - b. contains the name of the individual and his or her residential address, and
 - c. records the provision of financial benefits to the individual under a law of the Commonwealth, State or Territory (as the case may be).
2. A notice that:
 - a. was issued to an individual by the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) within the preceding 12 months
 - b. contains the name of the individual and his or her residential address, and
 - c. records a debt payable to or by the individual by or to (respectively) the Commonwealth under a Commonwealth law relating to taxation.
3. A notice that:
 - a. was issued to an individual by a local government body or utilities provider within the preceding three months
 - b. contains the name of the individual and his or her residential address, and
 - c. records the provision of services by that local government body or utilities provider to that address or to that person.
4. In relation to a person under the age of 18, a notice that:
 - a. was issued to a person by a school principal within the preceding three months
 - b. contains the name of the person and his or her residential address, and
 - c. records the period of time that the person attended the school.

Who can certify a document as a true copy?

All copied pages of ORIGINAL proof of identification documents must be certified as true copies by any individual approved to do so.

The person who is authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copy and make sure both documents are identical, then make sure all pages have been certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy' followed by their signature, printed name, qualification (eg Justice of the Peace, police officer, Australia Post employee, etc) and date.

I certify that this document is a true copy of the original having been sighted by me on this day
1 January 2016.
